Access to Leeds

A2L is the University of Leeds' Contextual Admissions scheme, which enables tutors to consider the wider context of a student's application in relation to their academic achievements so far and also considering the individual backgrounds circumstances they may have too. At Leeds we aim to recruit the brightest students with the most potential to succeed and appreciate that not everybody can demonstrate this through grades alone.

You would apply to Access to Leeds alongside their UCAS application.

If students are eligible for Access to Leeds, and receive an offer for their course, they will usually receive the standard offer as well as an alternative A2L offer, typically two A Level grades below the standard offer (or 16 UCAS points equivalent). This offer will include completion of the Access to Leeds module. Please be aware that the Access to Leeds scheme does not guarantee an offer.

In order to be eligible for Access to Leeds applicants must meet at least two of the following criteria:

- Be in the first generation of your immediate family to attend higher education
- Live in a geographical area with low levels of progression onto higher education (check this with our online postcode checker)
- Attend, or have attended, a school which achieved below the national average at GCSE (Attainment 8 score)
- From a household with an annual income of £25,000 or below
- Your studies have been disrupted by circumstances in your personal, social or domestic life (Except in extreme circumstances, disruption caused by the coronavirus pandemic will not be considered. Please read our Application Guidelines for more information)
- You live or grew up in public care

Please note: To be eligible to take up an Access to Leeds offer, students must:

- be applying to a standard undergraduate degree
- be living permanently in the UK and be eligible to pay 'home' fees. If students are assessed as an overseas student at any stage, they will be removed from Access to Leeds
- not already hold a higher education qualification.
- not be taking an Access to HE course, a foundation course, or applying via the University of Bradford Clinical Sciences route.

We have a video available for you to watch that explains the scheme in more detail which may be found here: <https://event.on24.com/wcc/r/3765436/9DCAEE65F48DFFBB911DF5ADA7DCB5D1>
