

Humanities & Arts Pathway – Mr McLaughlan

The Humanities and Arts pathway will focus on providing students with additional opportunities linked to pursuing a career in the humanities and arts sector.

Degree courses may include; English, Geography, Philosophy, Classics, Creative Arts and Design, History, Law, French, Spanish, Music, Performing Arts.

Pathway Benefits

Humanities and Arts – Opportunities

- Open Day experiences - providing an opportunity to learn more about academic study and life at university
- Taster Day experiences - providing more bespoke insight into your desired subject/area of study
- Presentations from guest speakers including university representatives and professionals with expertise in specific humanities subjects
- Support with entrance examinations (Law and Philosophy)
- Support with any written statements during the application process
- Support in accessing work experience placements
- Support in preparing for interview
- Access to super-curricular resources and competitions

